Bank Street Named Best Advisor at 2014 Metro Connect Awards

Award Recognizes Depth of Practice, Outstanding Results Delivered for Clients

STAMFORD, CT – March 10, 2014 – Bank Street Group, a boutique investment bank focused on the communications, media and technology sectors, issued a press release to highlight its selection as the winner of the Best Metro Advisor award in the Financial Institutions category of Capacity Media's 2014 Metro Connect Awards, which were presented during Metro Connect USA on February 27th at the Eden Roc Renaissance in Miami Beach, Florida.

“It is a great honor to have our firm acknowledged at the inaugural Capacity Media Metro Connect Awards. We extend our thanks to our clients for entrusting their critical financial and strategic transactions to our firm for more than a decade and to the Capacity Media Awards panel of judges for recognizing the results that we have consistently delivered for those clients,” said Richard Lukaj, Senior Managing Director of Bank Street.

“We have built the core of our practice around the communications infrastructure and services (CIS) sector with a team of senior professionals that distinguish themselves with deep domain expertise and unmatched transaction experience in their areas of focus. We remain highly active in the bandwidth ecosystem and look forward to serving companies in this vibrant sector for many years to come,” said James Henry, Senior Managing Director of Bank Street.

Bank Street also extended its congratulations to the winners of the other Metro Connect Awards categories that include a number of clients and close relationships of the firm. Allied Fiber, Atlantic-ACM, Bingham McCutchen, BTI Systems, DE-CIX, Fibertech Networks, Hibernia Networks and WireIE were all winners of their respective categories at the Metro Connect Awards.

The Metro Connect Awards were developed by Capacity Media in conjunction with Atlantic-ACM to recognize the best of the North American metro market. A panel of telecom analysts, industry experts and the senior editorial team at Capacity Magazine independently judged the awards.
