James Henry to Participate on Panel at Greater New York Data Center Summit

Panel at 4th Annual NYC Summit Will Explore Key Drivers for M&A Activity in 2015

STAMFORD, CT – April 13, 2015 – James Henry, Co-Founder and Senior Managing Director of Bank Street Group, a boutique investment bank focused on the communications, media and technology sectors, will participate on a panel at The Fourth Annual Greater New York Data Center Summit entitled Renewed M&A Activity, Valuation of the Data Center Operation & the Impact of Cross-Regional International Demand at 2:00 PM ET on Tuesday, April 14th.

The panel will take a close look at the state of mergers and acquisitions in the hosting sector. Among the topics covered will be what factors are driving M&A activity and will transactional volume increase or decrease in the next 12 months. Which players will be most acquisitive and why? How will the increased use of cloud applications impact the growth of data center operators and hosting providers?
